Andrea Brown and Somerset Chamber Choir have handpicked some of the most enjoyable choral repertoire to emerge from Denmark, Finland, Norway, Sweden and Iceland, from the time of Edvard Grieg to the present day.

Set in the atmospheric chapel of King's College Taunton, this concert promises an unforgettable experience of Nordic gems reminiscent of the ethereal beauty of the Aurora Borealis and polar landscapes.

Under the expert direction of Andrea Brown, the choir will be joined by the Divertimento String Quartet and baritone Thomas Humphreys.

Don't miss this unique opportunity to explore the rich tapestry of Nordic choral music from tranquil and serene melodies to lively folk-dance rhythms.
